

fields, promoting “start-ups” as their most valued offspring. Today, this success story keeps growing. According to recent studies, in 2016 more than 5,300 start-ups were born in Barcelona. It is no wonder that, among the most attractive and enduring start-up accelerators, WeFunder can count the NUMAlab incubator, where a group of successful start-ups have been created through the support of f988f36e3a
